Who remember the past - the fearful past - Its deeds of blood and slaughter; When the rush of the midnight s moaning blast And sob of the surging water But echoed the dirge of your land downcast Neath the wrongs the alien wrought her? - Merva. Who remember the past - the fearful past? asks the poet! Who, being of Celtic birth or blood, or of any race, that having read the dark pages of Ireland s history - a history of blood and tears - a history born of a monster from a nation s travail - can ever forget the past, or fail to discern the clank of the slave-chain which binds it to the present?
