Forgotten Books, United States, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Brown Alumni Monthly, Vol. 93: October, 1992 Editor: I enjoyed bam s June /july arti cle profiling seven financial-aid recipi ents. Their many accomplishments underscore the fact that need-blind admissions are essential to the future of the Brown community. However, I was concerned about Rebecca Bliss 92 s statement that she has worked at least forty hours a week while at Brown in order to pay her living expenses. While I have a great deal of respect and admiration for Ms. Bliss s ability to work her way through college (as well as her outstanding dedication to volum teer service), I feel Brown must place limits (twenty hours a week, for example) on the number of hours a full-time stu dent may work and award financial aid accordingly. Need-blind admissions are meaningless if the financial aid package assumes a student should have a full time job scraping plates at the Ratty!
